If Ms. Zhang is re-elected as the independent non-executive Director at the 2019 AGM, the Company will enter into a service agreement with Ms. Zhang in relation to her appointment. Ms. Zhang will be entitled to Director’s emoluments which are to be determined by the Board with reference to her duties and responsibilities with the Company, the market benchmark and performance of the Group, subject to review by the Board and the Remuneration Committee of the Company from time to time. Save for the adjustment pursuant to the requirements of the relevant applicable laws and regulations, Ms. Zhang’s term of service will commence from the date on which approval is obtained from the 2019 AGM until the expiry of the term of the fifth session of the Board.

Save as disclosed above, Ms. Zhang is not aware of any other matters that need to be brought to the attention of the holders of securities of the Company, nor any information needed to be disclosed under Rules 13.51(2) (h) to 13.51(2)(v) of the Listing Rules.

Independency requirement

Both Mr. Chong Teck Sin and Mr. Poon Chiu Kwok have served more than nine years as the independent non-executive Directors.

Pursuant to the code provision A.4.3 of Corporate Governance Code as set out in Appendix 14 of the Listing Rules, serving more than nine years could be relevant in the determination of an independent non-executive director’s independence.

Mr. Chong Teck Sin has over 26 years of experience sitting as Board directors including executive and non-executive positions in statutory board of the Singapore Government, charitable organisation, listed and unlisted companies. Listed companies includes those listed at Singapore Stock Exchange (SGX) and Australia Stock Exchange (ASX). His expertise includes financial, industrial and management expertise in a broad range of industries and businesses, whilst Mr. Poon Chiu Kwok has over 30 years of experience in regulatory affairs, listed company corporate finance, governance and management across a wide range of industries. The Company has received from each of Mr. Chong and Mr. Poon the confirmation of his independence according to Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules. Throughout their directorships with the Company, both Mr. Chong and Mr. Poon have participated in numerous Board meetings to give impartial advice and exercise independent judgement, served on various committees of the Board, but have never engaged in any executive management of the Company. Taking into consideration of the independent nature of their roles and duties in the past years, the Board (including the independent non-executive Directors other than Mr. Chong or, as the case may be, Mr. Poon) considers that the long service of Mr. Chong and Mr. Poon would not affect their exercise of independent judgement and is satisfied that both Mr. Chong and Mr. Poon have the required character, integrity and experience to continue fulfilling the role of the independent non-executive Directors. As such, the Board (including the independent non-executive Directors other than Mr. Chong or, as the case may be, Mr. Poon) consider Mr. Chong and Mr. Poon to be independent under the Listing Rules despite the length of their service. The Board (including the independent non-executive Directors other than Mr. Chong or, as the case may be, Mr. Poon) believes that the continued tenure of Mr. Chong and Mr. Poon will bring considerable stability to the Board and that Mr. Chong's experience in financial, industrial and business expertise and Mr. Poon's diverse knowledge and experience in strategic business, governance and capital market insights, as well as their understanding of the Company's operation and business will enable them to continue to contribute an impartial and independent view to the Board.
